

Ventura County Asian American Bar Association

2010 SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS APPLICATION

The Ventura County Asian American Bar Association is accepting applications from presently enrolled law students who live, work, go to school, are from, or have any other connection to Ventura County for scholarships in the amount of $500-2,000. The scholarship candidate must demonstrate an interest and commitment to serving the Asian American community through past or present activities. The scholarship is intended to also encourage and promote the pursuit of future pro bono/public interest work relating to the Asian American community.

Submission: Please submit the following:

1. Resume or curriculum vitae, to include your academic and work history highlights;
2. Essay: The application should be in essay format, include your name, address, e-mail and telephone number, and should be no more than 2 pages total in length addressing each of the following topics:
 - (a) Candidate's demonstrated commitment to serving the Asian American community (through pro bono or public interest work) in the past, present or in the future;
 - (b) Candidate's experience of overcoming any extraordinary obstacles and challenges in pursuit of a legal career, or similar experience while working within the Asian American community;
 - (c) Candidate's observation of legal issues facing the Asian American Community, and proposal to resolve those issues;
 - (d) Candidate's connection to Ventura County;
 - (e) Candidate's economic need for the scholarship.

Deadline: January 15, 2010 (applications must be received by the end of business at 5:00 p.m.)
