

Resolution of
The Board of Supervisors of Ventura County Recognizing
the Ventura County Asian American Bar Association

WHEREAS, the Ventura County Asian American Bar Association was established in February 2005 in response to the growth of the Asian American population in Ventura County and to the rising number of Asian American attorneys practicing law in the County; and

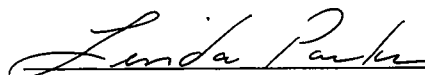

WHEREAS, the mission of the VCAABA is to provide legal assistance and community outreach to Asian Americans living and working in Ventura County, to seek the appointment of the first Asian American judge in Ventura County, to sponsor programs featuring prominent Asian American judges, attorneys and community leaders who have opened the door to more opportunities for Asian American attorneys, and to host networking events locally and with established bar associations throughout the state and nation; and

WHEREAS, the VCAABA in furtherance of the above mission has carried on the salutary tradition of supporting and promoting programs that help achieve diversity in the legal profession; and

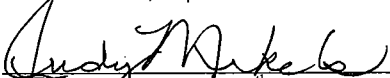

WHEREAS, the VCAABA has sponsored various events and numerous programs that have featured many prominent Asian American members of the legal community, the latest being Commissioner Rachelle Chong of the California Public Utilities Commission, who will be the featured speaker for the VCAABA's last event of the year on October 26, 2006.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Ventura County Board of Supervisors does hereby honor the Ventura County Asian American Bar Association and commends and congratulates it for all of its great work on behalf of the Asian American legal community, and on behalf of the larger community which it has served so well.
